THE COURT ORDERS:

- A. The stipulation is approved.
1. The previous judgment or order is amended accordingly.

2. All provisions of the previous judgment or order not amended by this Order remain in full effect.
3. Whenever private, accessible and reasonably-priced health insurance becomes available to either parent at a reasonable cost, that parent shall enroll the child(ren) as covered dependents under his/her health insurance, unless the child(ren) are already enrolled under another private health insurance plan or unless the parent's income is below 150% of the federal poverty level.
4. Both parties shall notify the Clerk of Courts, the Child Support Agency, and the other party in writing within 10 business days of any change of address, employment, and of any substantial change in income affecting the ability to pay support. This notification does not change the support Order. Any party may file moving papers to change this Order.
5. If the child support order includes more than one child, child support does not automatically adjust when a child reaches the age of majority and is no longer eligible for child support.

B. The stipulation is denied because _____.

C. The court hearing scheduled for [Date] _____, 20____ is removed from the court's calendar.

If this Order modified legal custody or physical placement in any way, you are informed that:

1. Each parent must notify the other parent, the child support agency, and the clerk of courts of the address at which they may be served within 10 business days of moving to that address. The address may be a street or post office address.
2. The address provided to the court is the address on which the other parties may rely for service of any motion relating to modification of legal custody or physical placement or to relocating the child's residence.
3. A parent granted periods of physical placement with the child must obtain a court order before relocating with the child 100 miles or more from the other parent if the other parent also has court-ordered periods of physical placement with the child.
