MOTION OF LEGAL SCHOLARS FOR LEAVE TO FILE A NON-PARTY AMICUS CURIAE BRIEF
IN SUPPORT OF NO PARTY

The eight legal scholars listed in the Appendix of the attached brief, through undersigned counsel, hereby request permission that they (“Amici”) be given leave to submit the attached non-party brief as amicus curiae in support of no party. This motion is brought pursuant to Wis. Stat. (Rule) § 809.19(7)(a) and Wis. Sup. Ct. Internal Op. Pro. III (B)(6)(c), along with this Court’s Order entered November 17, 2021, which provides that “any non-party that wishes to file a non-party brief amicus curiae in support of or in opposition to a proposed map” must file a motion for leave with the proposed non-party brief attached by noon on January 4, 2022. In support of their motion, Amici state as follows:

1. Amici are noted academic experts specializing in election law, voting rights, and constitutional law. Amici have researched and published extensively on election law and democratic theory. In particular, they have authored leading articles on redistricting and gerrymandering, several of which this court cited in its November 30, 2021, opinions. Amici have a professional interest in promoting a sound understanding of redistricting principles. They do not have a personal stake in the matter pending before this Court, except (in one instance) sharing the interests common to all Wisconsin residents in having proper electoral maps.

2. Amici have specialized knowledge critically important to evaluating the proposed plans submitted by the parties, and they believe the accompanying brief would be of significant value to this Court. In particular, drawing on their scholarly research and expertise on redistricting litigation and practice in Wisconsin and nationally, Amici explain their opposition to all of the proposed plans and recommend proper paths forward for the court. Amici believe the information provided in the accompanying brief offers a distinct perspective on the shortcomings of the parties' maps in light of applicable legal and equitable principles.
3. This motion for leave to file and the accompanying brief are submitted in a timely fashion pursuant to the Court's November 17, 2021 Order.

WHEREFORE, Amici movants respectfully request that this Court grant this motion and give leave to file the accompanying non-party amicus curiae brief in this case.

Dated: January 4, 2022

Respectfully submitted,
