Inquiries Concerning Medical or Substance Abuse Condition or Impairment

Through this application, the Board of Bar Examiners makes inquiry about recent mental and physical health and chemical dependency matters. This information, along with all other information, is treated confidentially by the Board. The Board's purpose in making such inquiries is to determine the current fitness of an applicant to practice law. The mere fact of treatment for medical conditions or impairments or chemical dependencies is never, in itself, a basis on which an applicant is ordinarily denied admission, and the Board routinely certifies for admission individuals who have demonstrated personal responsibility and maturity in dealing with these issues. The Board supports and encourages applicants who may benefit from assistance to seek it.

The Board usually does not seek information about therapy that is fairly characterized as stress counseling, domestic counseling, grief counseling, or counseling for eating or sleeping disorders, as these are generally not viewed as germane to the issue of whether an applicant is qualified to practice law.

THE BOARD SEEKS MEDICAL RECORDS SPARINGLY AND JUDICIOUSLY, AND TREATS SUCH INFORMATION SENSITIVELY AND CONFIDENTIALLY.

33. Yes No (a) Within the past five years have you ever cited consumption of drugs or alcohol in the course of any inquiry or investigation, administrative or judicial proceeding, or proposed termination or other disciplinary action as an explanation for your failure to meet a deadline or as a defense, mitigation or explanation of those matters?
