Upon receipt and within 10 days of filing of this form, the court shall determine whether to schedule a hearing on the change in placement or approve the placement and enter an Order for Post-Termination of Parental Rights (JC-1665). However, any requested hearing need not fall within the 10 days prescribed for approval or request. If a hearing is scheduled on a proposed placement, the responsible agency or department may not facilitate the change in placement until approved. Failure by the court within 10 days to affirmatively approve the request or schedule a hearing shall have the same effect as an approval of the change in placement.
