3) Medical Insurance and Payments. Medical Insurance and Payments.

Parents are required to provide private health insurance for their minor child(ren) if service providers are located within 30 miles or 30 minutes from the child's residence and if the cost is reasonable. Reasonable cost is defined as the total amount paid for insurance coverage where the cost does not exceed 10% of the insuring parent's monthly income available for child support. The insuring parent may receive a contribution toward the cost of the insurance from the other parent, either as a credit against the child support obligation or an increase in the non-insuring parent's child support obligation as long as the contribution does not exceed 10% of the non-insuring parent's gross monthly income. The parties understand that such medical insurance coverage for the minor child(ren) including medical, dental, orthodontic, hospital, psychiatric, counseling, drug and other health expenses which is currently offered shall be provided and paid by

- a. both parties. They shall provide private health insurance and neither parent is required to make a cash contribution to the other.
- b. _____ shall provide private health insurance. The out of pocket cost (difference between single and family coverage) to cover the child(ren) under such insurance is $____. The other parent shall contribute $____ toward that cost (as a reasonable cash contribution) and that amount, if any, is included as a deviation in the child support calculation in 4.b. of Child Support and Financial Expenses below.
- c. A comprehensive private health insurance policy is not available to either parent at a reasonable cost. The Petitioner/Joint Petitioner A Respondent/Joint Petitioner B has enrolled in shall promptly apply for Public Health Insurance.

If 2, enter the children's names and check all that apply in a-c.

Check a, b, c, or d.

If b, enter who will provide insurance, the out of pocket cost for such insurance, and the amount the other party will contribute.

If c, indicate who will be responsible for providing public health insurance and whether the children are enrolled or need to need to be enrolled.

Also, check 1 or 2. If 2, indicate the cost for such insurance and the amount the other party will contribute.

If d, check which party has income below 150% of the federal poverty level.

- 1. There is no out of pocket expense for the above Public Health Insurance.
- 2. Out of pocket cost for such insurance is $_____. The other parent shall contribute $_____ toward that cost (as a reasonable cash contribution) and that amount, if any, is included as a deviation in the child support calculation in 4.b. of Child Support and Financial Expenses below. If accessible private health insurance becomes available at a reasonable cost to either parent, that parent shall enroll the child(ren) as covered dependents under his/her health insurance.

- d. Petitioner/Joint Petitioner A Respondent/Joint Petitioner B does not have free health insurance available and has income below 150% of the federal poverty level and is therefore unable to make a cash contribution toward the cost of the child(ren)'s healthcare. The appropriate cash medical support obligation is $0. If accessible private health insurance becomes available at a reasonable cost to either parent, that parent shall enroll the child(ren) as covered dependents under his/her health insurance.

The insuring parent shall provide the other parent and the child support agency with copies of policy information and insurance cards. The insuring parent shall inform the child support agency about any change in his/her employment and the availability of insurance.
