Comments: If either party believes there was a violation of a written agreement between themselves, they may request the court to take appropriate action. If the violation is by a party who owes money, and the amount of money is agreed to, the court may simply be asked to enter a judgment for the money damages plus costs, using form SC-5420VA, Declaration Based on Noncompliance for Money Judgment Non-Eviction (Small Claims). If the violation is such that there are no money damages or that the parties agree that the court should first hold a hearing to determine whether there has been a violation or determine what the appropriate relief should be, the court would be asked to conduct a hearing and make the appropriate determination, using form SC-5410VB, Order for Hearing Non-Eviction (Small Claims).
