You are hereby notified that the Court has entered the following opinion and order:

---

2022AP70-CRNM      State of Wisconsin v. Craig R. Trenshaw (L.C. # 2018CF311)

Before Kloppenburg, P.J., Blanchard, and Graham, JJ.

Summary disposition orders may not be cited in any court of this state as precedent or authority, except for the limited purposes specified in WIS. STAT. RULE 809.23(3).

Attorney Erica Bauer, appointed counsel for Craig Trenshaw, has filed a no-merit report seeking to withdraw as appellate counsel. See WIS. STAT. RULE 809.32 (2021-22) and Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738, 744 (1967). By prior order, we requested input from Attorney Bauer as to whether there would be arguable merit to a challenge to the conditions of Trenshaw's extended supervision.

In response to this court's order, Attorney Bauer moves to dismiss this no-merit appeal and extend the time to file a postconviction motion. Attorney Bauer states that she has discussed the issue we identified with Trenshaw and that he wishes to pursue it. We accept Attorney

Bauer's response as a statement that counsel has considered the issue we identified and has concluded that the issue has arguable merit. Accordingly, we will dismiss this no-merit appeal and extend the time to file a postconviction motion. We again emphasize that nothing in our prior order or this opinion should be read as indicating that the court has reached any conclusions about the merits of any potential issue in this case.

Therefore,

IT IS ORDERED that the no-merit report is rejected and this no-merit appeal is dismissed.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the time to file a postconviction motion or notice of appeal is extended to sixty days from the date of this order.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this summary disposition order will not be published.
