You are hereby notified that the Court has entered the following opinion and order:

---

2017AP1803-CRNM      State of Wisconsin v. Kristin N. Sammons (L.C. #2015CF1081)

Before Reilly, P.J., Gundrum and Hagedorn, JJ.

Summary disposition orders may not be cited in any court of this state as precedent or authority, except for the limited purposes specified in WIS. STAT. RULE 809.23(3).

Kristin Sammons appeals from a judgment convicting her of stalking contrary to WIS. STAT. § 940.32(2) (2015-16)<sup>1</sup> and from an order denying her postconviction motion seeking sentence modification to allow good time to be applied against her conditional jail time.

Sammons's appellate counsel filed a no-merit report pursuant to WIS. STAT. RULE 809.32 and Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738 (1967). Sammons received a copy of the report and was advised of her right to file a response. She has not done so. Upon consideration of the report and an independent review of the record as mandated by Anders and RULE 809.32, we summarily affirm the judgment and order because there are no issues that would have arguable merit for appeal. WIS. STAT. RULE 809.21.

The circuit court imposed a three-year term of probation with one year of conditional jail time and imposed and stayed a three and one-half year sentence.

The no-merit report addresses the following possible appellate issues: (1) whether Sammons's no contest plea was knowingly, voluntarily, and intelligently entered and had a factual basis; (2) whether the circuit court misused its sentencing discretion and properly awarded restitution to the victim; and (3) whether the circuit court erroneously denied the postconviction motion seeking good time against the conditional jail time. After reviewing the record, we conclude that counsel's no-merit report properly analyzes these issues and correctly concludes that these issues are without arguable merit.

In addition to the issues discussed above, we have independently reviewed the record. Our independent review of the record did not disclose any potentially meritorious issue for appeal. Because we conclude that there would be no arguable merit to any issue that could be raised on appeal, we accept the no-merit report, affirm the judgment of conviction and the circuit court order and relieve Attorney Suzanne Hagopian of further representation of Sammons in these matters.

Upon the foregoing reasons,

IT IS ORDERED that the judgment and order of the circuit court are summarily affirmed pursuant to WIS. STAT. RULE 809.21.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Attorney Suzanne Hagopian is relieved of further representation of Kristin Sammons in these matters.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this summary disposition order will not be published.
