A.O.

You are hereby notified that the Court has entered the following opinion and order:

2019AP914-NM	In the interest of S.O., a person under the age of 18: State of Wisconsin v. A.O. (L.C. # 2017TP125)
2019AP915-NM	In the interest of T.M.D., a person under the age of 18: State of Wisconsin v. A.O. (L.C. # 2017TP126)
2019AP916-NM	In the interest of M.O., a person under the age of 18: State of Wisconsin v. A.O. (L.C. # 2017TP127)

Summary disposition orders may not be cited in any court of this state as precedent or authority, except for the limited purposes specified in WIS. STAT. RULE 809.23(3).

Before Brennan, J.¹

Attorney Eileen T. Evans, appointed counsel for A.O., has filed a no-merit report pursuant to WIS. STAT. RULE 809.107(5m). Counsel provided A.O. with a copy of the report, and both counsel and this court advised her of her right to file a response. A.O. has not responded. This court concludes that these cases are appropriate for summary disposition. See WIS. STAT. RULE 809.21. After an independent review of the record, this court concludes that the record does not show arguable merit to any issue that could be raised on appeal.

As to all three children, A.O. entered a plea of no contest to the ground of continuing child in need of protection and services (CHIPS). The court conducted a personal colloquy with A.O. as required by WIS. STAT. § 48.422(7) and Kenosha County v. Jodie W., 2006 WI 93, ¶¶24-25, 293 Wis. 2d 530, 716 N.W.2d 845. In addition, the court heard testimony in support of the continuing CHIPS ground, as required by § 48.422(3). That testimony established the necessary elements for that ground. For these reasons, the record does not show that there is arguable merit to any argument to withdraw A.O.'s plea of no contest.

The circuit court held a contested dispositional hearing and concluded that it was in the best interests of the children that A.O.'s parental rights be terminated. The court's decision emphasized its concerns about safety of the children due to the nature of A.O.'s ongoing relationship with the father of two of the children. The court also noted the success of the children in their current placements with adoption resources, and concluded that adoption is the only appropriate path to safe permanence.

The court considered the proper standard and factors under WIS. STAT. § 48.426(2) and (3), did not consider improper factors, and reached a reasonable result. An argument that the court erroneously exercised its discretion would lack arguable merit.

Therefore,

IT IS ORDERED that the orders terminating parental rights are summarily affirmed. See WIS. STAT. RULE 809.21.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Attorney Evans is relieved of further representation of A.O. in this matter. See WIS. STAT. RULE 809.32(3).

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this summary disposition order will not be published.
