You are hereby notified that the Court has entered the following opinion and order:

2020AP90-CRNM State of Wisconsin v. Terry Daron Johnson
(L.C. # 2018CF4900)

Before Brash, P.J., Dugan and White, JJ.

Summary disposition orders may not be cited in any court of this state as precedent or authority, except for the limited purposes specified in WIS. STAT. RULE 809.23(3).

Terry Daron Johnson appeals from a judgment of conviction for robbery with use of force. His appellate counsel has filed a no-merit report pursuant to WIS. STAT. RULE 809.32 (2017-18),¹ and Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738 (1967). Johnson received a copy of the report, was advised of his right to file a response, and has elected not to do so. Upon consideration of the report and an independent review of the record, as mandated by Anders, the judgment is summarily affirmed because we conclude that there is no arguable merit to any issue that could be raised on appeal. See WIS. STAT. RULE 809.21.

Johnson was charged with armed robbery after demanding and taking a purse from a woman as she was entering her car outside a store. Pursuant to a plea agreement, the charge was reduced to robbery with use of force and the prosecution agreed to recommend a ten-year sentence. Johnson entered a guilty plea. He was sentenced to six years of initial confinement and three years of extended supervision.

The no-merit report addresses the potential issues of whether Johnson's plea was knowingly, voluntarily, and intelligently entered and whether the sentence was the result of an erroneous exercise of discretion or unduly harsh or excessive. This court is satisfied that the no-merit report properly analyzes the issues it raises as without merit, and this court will not discuss them further.

Our review of the record discloses no other potential issues for appeal. Accordingly, this court accepts the no-merit report, affirms the conviction, and discharges appellate counsel of the obligation to represent Johnson further in this appeal.

Upon the foregoing reasons,

IT IS ORDERED that the judgment of conviction is summarily affirmed. See WIS. STAT. RULE 809.21.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Attorney Mark S. Rosen is relieved from further representing Terry Daron Johnson in this appeal. See WIS. STAT. RULE 809.32(3).

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this summary disposition order will not be published.
