You are hereby notified that the Court has entered the following opinion and order:

2021AP1317-CRNM	State of Wisconsin v. Jesse C. Goss (L.C. # 2020CF601)
2021AP1318-CRNM	State of Wisconsin v. Jesse C. Goss (L.C. # 2020CF4)

Before Kloppenburg, Graham, and Nashold, JJ.

Summary disposition orders may not be cited in any court of this state as precedent or authority, except for the limited purposes specified in WIS. STAT. RULE 809.23(3).

Attorney Kathilynne Grotelueschen, appointed counsel for Jesse Goss, has filed a no-merit report seeking to withdraw as appellate counsel pursuant to WIS. STAT. RULE 809.32 (2019-20)¹ and Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738 (1967). Goss was sent a copy of the report and has not filed a response. Upon consideration of the report and an independent review of the record, we conclude that there is no arguable merit to any issue that could be raised on appeal. Accordingly, we affirm.

As part of a plea agreement, Goss pled no contest to one count of possession of ketamine with intent to deliver and one count of possession of MDMA with intent to deliver. Other charges were dismissed and read in. Following a joint recommendation by the parties, the circuit court imposed a sentence of one year in jail for the ketamine charge and three years of probation for the MDMA charge.²

The no-merit report addresses whether there is any arguably meritorious claim that evidence should have been suppressed; whether there is any arguably meritorious claim that Goss's no contest pleas were not knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily entered; and whether there is any arguably meritorious basis to challenge Goss's sentence. We are satisfied that the report properly analyzes each of these issues as having no arguable merit.

Our review of the record discloses no other potential issues for appeal.

Therefore,

IT IS ORDERED that the judgments are summarily affirmed. See WIS. STAT. RULE 809.21.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Attorney Kathilynne Grotelueschen is relieved of any further representation of Jesse Goss in this matter. See WIS. STAT. RULE 809.32(3).

² Consistent with the parties' joint recommendation, the court applied 349 days of sentence credit to the one-year jail sentence so that the jail sentence was, in effect, almost a time served sentence.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this summary disposition order will not be published.
