

Law Clerk
Wisconsin Court of Appeals – District IV
Madison, WI

Judge Rachel Graham of the Wisconsin Court of Appeals is seeking a judicial law clerk for the 2024-2025 term, with an August 1, 2024 start date. Judicial law clerks assist with legal research; opinion writing, editing, and review; supervision of interns; and other duties as directed by Judge Graham. Candidates for the position should have strong critical thinking and writing skills and good attention to detail.

Applicants are required to submit the following application materials: cover letter, resume, law school transcript (unofficial is fine), writing sample, and a list of three references. Applicants may also submit up to three letters of reference, but such letters are not required.

Please submit all materials and direct any questions to Judge Graham's judicial assistant, Roberta Bushéy, at roberta.bushey@wicourts.gov. Applications will be accepted until the position is filled, and will be evaluated on a rolling basis.
