During oral argument of the Wisconsin Supreme Court, the justices often ask questions of the attorneys presenting their cases. The Supreme Court hears only cases of statewide significance that will help clarify the law.

THE BENCH

THE MARSHAL'S DESK
The Marshal calls the Court to order, monitors the gavel meter, and maintains the security and decorum of the proceeding.

THE ATTORNEYS' TABLE

One or two attorneys for each side of the case sit at the attorneys' table. Each side has 30 minutes to present its arguments.

Podium with Gavel Meter

The Gavel Meter tells the attorneys how much time they have to present their arguments. First a green light appears telling the attorneys to begin. A yellow light appears when five minutes remain, and a red light appears telling the attorney to stop his/her presentation.

Members of the media sit here. Reporters, photographers, and videographers listen to and record oral argument.

Wisconsin Supreme Court oral arguments are open to the public.

The Court's session runs from September 1 through June 30. During the session, the Court generally hears oral arguments for three days each month, with three cases heard each day.

These seats are reserved for law clerks. Law clerks are recent law school graduates who are appointed by a justice for one-year terms. They assist the justices in researching and drafting opinions.
