SERVICE ON RESPONDENT

Before the Injunction Hearing, it is the petitioner's responsibility to contact the sheriff's office or other process server to verify that the documents were served and proof of service is filed with the Clerk of Circuit Court. The Court will not do this for the petitioner. If available in your county, another way to verify if the documents were served is to register with VPO (VINE Protective Order) on its website at www.vinelink.com.

If the respondent cannot be personally served with Temporary Restraining Order and Notice of Injunction Hearing: Harassment (CV-406) form, the respondent can be served by publication using Publication Notice (CV-505) form.

- The petitioner must file with the Court an affidavit stating that service of the respondent by the sheriff or a private process server was unsuccessful because the respondent was avoiding service by concealment or otherwise. The petitioner should get this affidavit from the sheriff or private process server.
- The petitioner also must send the Temporary Restraining Order and Notice of Injunction Hearing: Harassment (CV-406) form to the respondent via mail or facsimile and must provide proof of transmission (e.g. certified mail receipt, affidavit of mailing or faxing). The mailing or sending of a facsimile may be omitted if the post-office address or facsimile number cannot be ascertained with due diligence.

The Clerk of Circuit Court shall forward the Temporary Restraining Order to the sheriff and the sheriff shall assist the petitioner in serving the Temporary Restraining Order.

If a service fee is required by the sheriff under §814.70(1), Wis. Stats., the petitioner shall pay the fee directly to the sheriff. If the Court checks box number 3.
