PETITIONS FOR REVIEW

A petition for review is a request made to the Supreme Court to review the decision made by the Court of Appeals. It is important to note that the Supreme Court has discretionary jurisdiction, which means that it only grants review in selected cases. During December 48 new petitions for review were filed. In addition, the Supreme Court disposed of 40 petitions for review during the month, two of which were granted. At present, the Supreme Court has 198 petitions for review that are still pending.

PETITIONS FOR BYPASS

A petition for bypass is a request made by a party to the Supreme Court to take jurisdiction of an appeal or other proceeding that is pending in the Court of Appeals. The Supreme Court December consider a case appropriate for bypass if it meets one or more of the criteria for review. In such cases, the Supreme Court will ultimately decide to consider the matter, regardless of how the Court of Appeals December decide the issues. This type of petition may also be granted where there is a clear need to speed up the ultimate appellate decision. In December, the Supreme Court received one petition for bypass and disposed of two petitions. The Supreme Court currently has 18 petitions for bypass pending.

	December 2024	Term to Date
Petitions for Bypass filed	1	6
Civil Cases	1	6
Criminal Cases	0	0

Criminal Cases (petitions granted)	0 (0)	0 (0)

Requests for Certification

A request for certification arises when the Court of Appeals calls upon the Supreme Court to hear a case before the Court of Appeals has had the opportunity to do so. This type of request is typically made when the Court of Appeals believes that the case is of such significance that it is essential for the Supreme Court to consider it at the earliest opportunity.

The criteria for evaluating such a request are the same as those used when assessing a petition to bypass. The Supreme Court considers various factors, including the importance of the issues at stake, the likelihood that the case will return to the Supreme Court if it is not heard, and whether the case would benefit from the Supreme Court's guidance.

If the Supreme Court decides to grant the request for certification, it means that it will consider the case first, before the Court of Appeals has had the opportunity to hear it. If the Supreme Court declines the request, the case will proceed to the Court of Appeals in the usual way. During December, the Supreme Court received no requests for certification and disposed of no requests for certification. The Supreme Court currently has no requests for certification pending.
