WISCONSIN SUPREME COURT ANNUAL STATISTICAL REPORT

2018-2019 TERM

This annual statistical report presents information about the work of the Wisconsin Supreme Court in its judicial and rulemaking functions from September 1, 2018 through August 31, 2019. Included are statistics on case filings, opinions, and dispositions issued by the Court and information about the creation or amendment of rules governing pleading, practice and procedure in judicial proceedings in all Wisconsin courts.

Opinions Issued by the Court

The Supreme Court issued opinions resolving 157 cases¹ during the 2018-2019 term.

	2017-18	2017-18
Total number of cases resolved by opinion	109	89
Attorney discipline cases	41	27
Judicial discipline cases	1	2
Bar admission cases	0	0
Civil cases	42	58
Criminal cases	27	23

¹ The number of authored opinions for the term may differ from the number of cases resolved by opinion for the term; multiple cases resolved by one opinion (consolidated cases) and per curiam opinions (by the court as a whole) account for this difference.

Petitions for Review

A total of 609 petitions for review were filed during the term. A petition for review asks the Supreme Court to review the decision of the Court of Appeals. The Supreme Court's jurisdiction is discretionary, meaning that review is granted in selected cases only. During the 2018-2019 term, the Supreme Court disposed of 712 petitions for review, of which 53 petitions were granted. At the end of the term, the Court had 146 petitions for review pending.

Criminal cases (petitions granted)	407 (15)	512 (29)

Petitions for Bypass

This term, the Supreme Court received 13 petitions for bypass and disposed of 13 petitions for bypass, of which 5 were granted. In a petition for bypass, a party requests that the Supreme Court take jurisdiction of an appeal or other proceeding pending in the Court of Appeals. A matter appropriate for bypass is usually one which meets one or more of the criteria for review by the Supreme Court and one the Supreme Court concludes it will ultimately choose to consider regardless of how the Court of Appeals might decide the issues. A petition for bypass may also be granted where there is a clear need to hasten the ultimate appellate decision. At the end of the term, the Court had 3 petitions for bypass pending.

Requests for Certification

During the 2018-2019 term, the Supreme Court received 5 requests for certification and disposed of 5 requests for certification, of which 4 was granted. In a request for certification, the Court of Appeals asks the Supreme Court to exercise its appellate jurisdiction before the Court of Appeals hears the matter. A request for certification is decided on the basis of the same criteria as a petition to bypass. At the end of the term, the Court had 1 requests for certification pending.

The Supreme Court also received 56 petitions for supervisory writ, which ask the Supreme Court to order the Court of Appeals or a circuit court to take a certain action in a case. Eleven original actions were filed and 5 certified questions. An original action is a petition asking the Supreme Court to take jurisdiction over a particular matter. At the end of the term, the Court had 108 regulatory matters and 15 petitions for supervisory writ pending.

Rules Petitions

Each term, the Court notices and holds public hearings on petitions for the creation or amendment of rules governing pleading, practice and procedure in judicial proceedings in all courts, provided that the Court deems the petition to have arguable merit. In the term just ended, the Court held 4 rules hearings and convened 1 open administrative conference at which 7 petitions were discussed. During the term, the Court issued 24 orders, 16 of which were amendments or new rules governing practice and procedure in Wisconsin.

New and Amended Rules

The Court entered the following rule orders during the term:

Petition 12-09A: In re Matter of Publication of Supreme Court Orders – creation of rules under Supreme Court Rules Cho. 80 and amendment of Supreme Court rule 98.07, Publication of Rules. Effective September 7, 2018, the Court Ordered that no action will be taken with respect to the amendments adopted pursuant to S. Ct. Order 12-09, 2-15 WI 86.

Petition 13-15: In the Matter of Petition to Establish Pilot Project and Create Rule Governing Appointment of Counsel in Civil Cases. On September 7, 2018, the petition was dismissed.

Petition 18-03: In re proposed amendment to Wisconsin Statute § 806.02. IT IS ORDERED that:

SECTION 1. 806.02(1) is amended to read as follows:

806.02 (1) A default judgment may be rendered in favor of any party as provided in subs. (1) to (4) if no issue of law or fact has been joined on any claim asserted in a complaint, counterclaim, or cross claim and if the time for joining issue has expired. Any defendant appearing in an action shall be entitled to notice of motion for judgment.

SECTION 2. A Judicial Council Committee Note to 806.02(1) of the statutes is created to read:
JUDICIAL COUNCIL COMMITTEE NOTE

Wis. Stat. s. 802.06(1) currently requires defendants to file an answer to the complaint. It also requires parties served with a counterclaim or a cross complaint to serve a reply to the counterclaim or an answer to the cross-claim. Wis. Stat. s. 806.02 currently permits a plaintiff to obtain a default judgment against a defendant who fails to comply with s. 802.06(1), but it does not permit any other party to obtain a default judgment when an opposing party fails to comply with s. 802.06(1) by filing a response to a counterclaim or cross claim. The Council could find no logical basis for this disparity in treatment. Furthermore, the Council noted that No. 18-03 Rule 55 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure allows any party to obtain judgment against another party who has failed to plead or otherwise defend against a complaint, counterclaim, or cross claim.

SECTION 3. 806.02(2) is amended to read as follows:

806.02 (2) After filing the complaint, counterclaim, or cross claim and proof of service thereof of the summons on one or more of the defendants and after filing an affidavit that the defendant the party against whom judgment is sought is in default for failure to join issue, the plaintiff a party may move for judgment according to the demand of the complaint, counterclaim, or cross claim. If the amount of money sought was excluded from the demand for judgment, as required under s. 802.02(1m), the court shall require the plaintiff the moving party to specify the amount of money claimed and provide that information to the court and to the other parties appearing in the action prior to the court rendering judgment. If proof of any fact is necessary for the court to give render judgment, the court shall receive the proof.

SECTION 4. 806.02(5) is amended to read as follows:

806.02 (5) A default judgment may be rendered against any defendant party who has appeared in the action but who fails to appear at trial. If proof of any fact is necessary for the court to render judgment, the court shall receive the proof.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the effective date of this order is January 1, 2019.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Judicial Council Committee Note to Wis. Stat. § 806.02 is not adopted, but will be published and may be consulted for guidance in interpreting and applying the rule. No. 18-03.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the rule adopted pursuant to this order shall apply to court proceedings commenced after the effective date of this rule and to any proceedings within a court proceeding then pending, except insofar as, the opinion of the circuit court, application of the rule change would not be feasible or would work injustice, in which event the former rule applies. Dated October 23, 2018.

COMMENT

Current law provides for each circuit judge to appoint a court reporter for his or her court or branch of court, s. 751.02, stats. Additionally, where "floating" court reporter positions have been created and assigned to specific judicial administrative districts, the chief judge or district court administrator assigns the court reporter to fill in where needed because of illness, vacations, leaves of absence, or backlog problems. Historically, the court reporter was the only staff directly responsible to the judge and in many cases assumed a number of clerical and administrative duties for the judge's court. It is wasteful of an important court resource to have court reporters performing tasks other than ~~stenographic recording and transcription taking and transcribing the verbatim record.~~ When a court reporter's services are not required by the appointing judge, the The court reporter shall be available to assist in other circuit court branches as assigned by the chief judge or district court administrator to assure adequate coverage of all reported proceedings.
