WISCONSIN SUPREME COURT ANNUAL STATISTICAL REPORT

2020-2021 TERM

This annual statistical report presents information about the work of the Wisconsin Supreme Court in its judicial and rulemaking functions from September 1, 2020 through August 31, 2021. Included are statistics on case filings, opinions, and dispositions issued by the Court and information about the creation or amendment of rules governing pleading, practice and procedure in judicial proceedings in all Wisconsin courts.

Opinions Issued by the Court

The Supreme Court issued opinions resolving 97 cases¹ during the 2020-2021 term.

	2019-2020	2020-2021
Total number of cases resolved by opinion	81	97
Attorney discipline cases	29	33
Judicial discipline cases	1	1
Bar admission cases	0	0
Civil cases	52	44
Criminal cases	23	19

Petitions for Review

¹ The number of authored opinions for the term may differ from the number of cases resolved by opinion for the term; multiple cases resolved by one opinion (consolidated cases) and per curiam opinions (by the court as a whole) account for this difference.

A total of 651 petitions for review were filed during the term. A petition for review asks the Supreme Court to review the decision of the Court of Appeals. The Supreme Court’s jurisdiction is discretionary, meaning that review is granted in selected cases only. During the 2020-2021 term, the Supreme Court disposed of 596 petitions for review, of which 52 petitions were granted. At the end of the term, the Court had 221 petitions for review pending.

Petitions for Bypass

This term, the Supreme Court received 16 petitions for bypass and disposed of 13 petitions for bypass, of which 4 were granted. In a petition for bypass, a party requests that the Supreme Court take jurisdiction of an appeal or other proceeding pending in the Court of Appeals. A matter appropriate for bypass is usually one which meets one or more of the criteria for review by the Supreme Court and one the Supreme Court concludes it will ultimately choose to consider regardless of how the Court of Appeals might decide the issues. A petition for bypass may also be granted where there is a clear need to hasten the ultimate appellate decision. At the end of the term, the Court had 4 petitions for bypass pending.

Requests for Certification

During the 2020-2021 term, the Supreme Court received 7 requests for certification and disposed of 9 requests for certification, of which 6 were granted. In a request for certification, the Court of Appeals asks the Supreme Court to exercise its appellate jurisdiction before the Court of Appeals hears the matter. A request for certification is decided on the basis of the same criteria as a petition to bypass. At the end of the term, the Court had 1 request for certification pending.

Regulatory Matters, Supervisory Writs, and Original Actions

During the 2020-2021 term, a total of 27 matters within the regulatory jurisdiction of the Court (bar admission, lawyer discipline, and judicial discipline) were filed. The Supreme Court also received 41 petitions for supervisory writ, which ask the Supreme Court to order the Court of Appeals or a circuit court to take a certain action in a case. Seventeen original actions were filed and 2 certified questions. An original action is a petition asking the Supreme Court to take jurisdiction over a particular matter. Opinions disposing of cases in these categories are included in “Opinions Issued by the Court” above; statistics on dispositional orders are listed below. At the end of the term, the Court had 81 regulatory matters and 13 petitions for supervisory writ pending.
